Jerome E. Horton Releases List of California's Largest Sales Tax Delinquencies

Jerome E. Horton, Vice Chairman of the California State Board of Equalization (BOE), today announced the list of California's largest unpaid sales and use tax delinquencies has been updated at www.boe.ca.gov. The BOE replaced 28 names on its list of debtors. Those added to the list have delinquencies totaling $20.2 million in sales tax owed.

Mr. Horton was the author of AB 1418 in 2006 which created this program. The BOE and the Franchise Tax Board combined have collected nearly $ 5 million in delinquent state and local taxes under AB 1418. Publication of the list, per Mr. Horton's AB 1418, has proven a very successful way to prompt the delinquent taxpayers to come forward and pay the amounts due promptly.

Below is a list of the 28 newly added businesses and the $20.2 million in delinquencies subject to Horton's AB 1418.

Vice Chairman Jerome E. Horton is the 4th District Member of the BOE, representing more than 8.5 million residents in Los Angeles County. He is also the BOE Legislative Committee chair. Horton is the first African American to serve on the BOE since its inception in 1879, and the third African American constitutional officer in California's history. Horton was appointed by the Governor and confirmed by both the Assembly and the Senate in 2009. Horton previously served as an Assembly member from 2000-2006.

The five-member California State Board of Equalization is a publicly elected tax board. The BOE collects more than $53 billion annually in taxes and fees supporting state and local government services. It hears business tax appeals, acts as the appellate body for franchise and personal income tax appeals, and serves a significant role in the assessment and administration of property taxes. For more information on other taxes and fees in California, visit www.taxes.ca.gov.
